Spiritual :

knowledge of, and respect for, different people's faiths, feelings and values willingness to reflect on their experiences.

ability to recognise the difference between right and wrong and to readily apply this understanding in their own lives

Moral:

ability to recognise the difference between right and wrong and to readily apply this understanding in their own lives understand and appreciate the viewpoints of others

Social:

socialising with other pupils, including those from different religious, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds acceptance of and engagement with the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

They will develop and demonstrate skills and attitudes that will allow them to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain.

Cultural:

understanding and appreciation of the wide range of cultural influences that have shaped their own heritage and that of others understanding and appreciation of the range of different cultures in the school and further afield as an essential element of their preparation for life in modern Britain ability to recognise, and value, the things we share in common across cultural, religious, ethnic and socio-economic communities interest in exploring, improving understanding of and showing respect for different faiths and cultural diversity and the extent to which they understand, accept, respect and celebrate diversity.

This is shown by their respect and attitudes towards different religious, ethnic and socio-economic groups in the local, national and global communities.

Links with fundamental British Values understanding that difference is a positive, not a negative, and that individual characteristics make people unique promoting an inclusive environment that meets the needs of all pupils, irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation
